

Core Skills Analysis

English

- Improved critical thinking skills by analyzing the plot, characters, and themes of various movies.
- Enhanced writing abilities through writing detailed movie reviews that included summaries and personal reflections.
- Expanded vocabulary by describing the cinematography techniques and sound design in different films.
- Developed persuasive communication skills by defending their opinions on whether a movie was worth watching or not.

Media Studies

- Gained a deeper understanding of how movies influence society's views and perceptions.
- Learned to deconstruct the messages and ideologies portrayed in films from different genres.
- Explored the role of movie critics and their impact on audience preferences.
- Developed visual literacy skills by analyzing the use of lighting, camera angles, and editing in movies.

Tips

To further develop skills related to movie reviews, students can consider creating video reviews or podcasts discussing films. They can also explore film analysis techniques used by professional critics and experiment with different styles of writing movie reviews, such as humorous or satirical approaches.

Book Recommendations

- How to Read a Film: Movies, Media, and Beyond by James Monaco: This book provides an in-depth look at film analysis, from understanding cinematography to decoding the hidden messages in movies. It is an essential guide for aspiring film critics.
- The Film Buff's Bucket List: The 50 Movies of the 2000s to See Before You Die by Chris Stuckmann: A comprehensive list of must-watch movies from the 2000s, accompanied by insightful reviews and analysis by a prominent film critic, perfect for expanding cinematic knowledge.
- Ebert's Bests: The 78 Movies Every Film Fan Needs to See by Roger Ebert: Curated by the legendary film critic Roger Ebert, this book showcases the essential films that have shaped the industry, with Ebert's signature engaging and informative reviews.