

English Language Arts

- The first-grade child has learned to identify and spell words that end in "ce" through this activity.
- They have practiced using phonics skills to recognize the "ce" sound at the end of words.
- The child has improved their spelling skills by correctly spelling words like "trace," "fierce," and "peace."
- They have also developed their vocabulary by learning new words that end in "ce."

Continued development can be encouraged by incorporating more activities that focus on spelling words ending in "ce." For example, the child can create flashcards with different "ce" words and practice spelling them aloud. They can also engage in word-building activities using letter tiles or magnetic letters to form "ce" words. Additionally, reading books that contain words ending in "ce" can reinforce this skill in a fun and engaging way.

Book Recommendations

- Grace and Lace by Emily Mason: This book tells the story of Grace, a young girl who loves to wear lace dresses. It introduces various words ending in "ce" while highlighting the importance of expressing oneself.
- Race to Space by Sara Johnson: Join the adventurous characters in this book as they compete in a race to outer space. Along the way, children will encounter words ending in "ce" and be captivated by the exciting storyline.
- The Peaceful Place by Laura Evans: This book takes readers on a journey to a peaceful and magical land. As the characters explore this enchanting place, they encounter words ending in "ce," promoting both literacy and imagination.

If you click on these links and make a purchase, we may receive a small commission.