

Art

- The child learned about colors and their combinations through interactive activities on the Khan Academy Kids app.
- They explored different art techniques like drawing, painting, and collage making.
- They learned about famous artists and their works through virtual art galleries.
- They practiced their creativity by creating their own artwork using the digital drawing tools on the Amazon Fire tablet.

English Language Arts

- The child improved their reading skills by engaging with interactive storybooks on the Khan Academy Kids app.
- They practiced letter recognition and phonics through engaging games and activities.
- They expanded their vocabulary by learning new words and their meanings through fun exercises.
- They developed their writing skills by creating their own stories and journal entries on the Amazon Fire tablet.

History

- The child explored various historical events and timelines through animated videos and interactive quizzes on the Khan Academy Kids app.
- They learned about famous historical figures and their contributions to society.
- They gained an understanding of different cultures and traditions through virtual field trips and cultural presentations.
- They practiced critical thinking and analysis skills by answering questions and solving puzzles related to historical events.

Math

- The child strengthened their number sense and counting skills through interactive games and activities on the Khan Academy Kids app.
- They learned about basic math operations like addition, subtraction, and multiplication through engaging exercises.
- They practiced problem-solving skills by solving math puzzles and word problems.
- They learned about shapes, patterns, and measurements through hands-on activities on the Amazon Fire tablet.

Music

- The child explored different musical instruments and their sounds through interactive lessons on the Khan Academy Kids app.
- They learned about musical concepts like rhythm, melody, and tempo.
- They practiced singing and playing simple tunes on virtual instruments.
- They developed an appreciation for different genres of music through exposure to various musical styles.

Science

- The child learned about different scientific concepts like plants, animals, weather, and forces through interactive videos and experiments on the Khan Academy Kids app.
- They explored the natural world through virtual field trips and observations.
- They conducted simple experiments and recorded their findings using the Amazon Fire tablet.

- They developed critical thinking skills by answering questions and making predictions based on their scientific knowledge.

Social Studies

- The child gained an understanding of different communities, cultures, and traditions through interactive lessons on the Khan Academy Kids app.
- They learned about important historical events and their impact on society.
- They explored maps and learned about different countries and their landmarks.
- They developed empathy and understanding for people from diverse backgrounds through virtual discussions and storytelling.

For continued development, encourage the child to use the Khan Academy Kids app regularly and explore new topics of interest. They can also engage in hands-on activities related to the subjects they enjoyed the most. For example, they can create their own art projects, write their own stories, conduct simple science experiments, or learn to play a musical instrument. Encourage them to ask questions, explore their curiosity, and think critically about the world around them.

Book Recommendations

- Art for Kids: Drawing by Kathryn Temple: This book provides step-by-step instructions for young artists to learn drawing techniques and create their own artwork.
- The Magic School Bus Explores the Senses by Joanna Cole: This educational book takes children on a journey through the human body, exploring the five senses in a fun and interactive way.
- National Geographic Kids: Everything Rocks and Minerals by Steve Tomecek: This book introduces children to the fascinating world of rocks and minerals through stunning photographs and interesting facts.

If you click on these links and make a purchase, we may receive a small commission.