

- The child learned how to read and understand a book with multiple chapters.
- They learned how to follow a story and comprehend the plot.
- They learned new vocabulary words from the book.
- The child practiced their reading fluency and accuracy.
- They learned how to make predictions about the story based on the information provided.

Continued development can be encouraged by:

- Encouraging the child to read more books with multiple chapters to further enhance their reading skills.
- Discussing the book with the child, asking them questions about the plot, characters, and their favorite parts.
- Encouraging the child to write a short summary or review of the book to practice their writing skills.
- Introducing the child to different genres of books to expand their reading interests and expose them to different writing styles.
- Playing word games or engaging in activities that reinforce the new vocabulary words they learned from the book.