

History

- The First-grade child learned about the city of London, its landmarks, and its history.
- They learned about the Tower of London and its role in British history.
- They learned about the Great Fire of London and its impact on the city.
- They learned about the monarchy and the British royal family.

For continued development, encourage the child to explore more about London through hands-on activities. They can create their own model of the Tower of London using craft materials or build a miniature replica of the city using blocks. They can also engage in role-playing games where they pretend to be a member of the royal family or historical figures from London's past.
