

Art

- The child learned about historical artifacts and their significance in art.
- Explored the visual representation of historical locations and events in the movie.
- Understood the use of props and set design in creating a historical atmosphere.

English Language Arts

- Engaged in critical thinking and analysis of historical clues and riddles in the movie's plot.
- Explored the theme of storytelling and historical narratives within the movie.
- Practiced reading and understanding historical texts and documents within the context of the movie.

Math

- Used problem-solving skills to decipher codes and solve puzzles within the movie's storyline.
- Explored the concept of geometry in relation to maps and historical symbols presented in the movie.
- Practiced spatial awareness and understanding of distances and measurements during the treasure hunt in the movie.

Science

- Explored the concept of historical preservation and conservation of ancient artifacts.
- Discussed the scientific methods and technologies used to study historical artifacts in the movie.
- Learned about historical discoveries and the scientific process of uncovering hidden truths within the movie's narrative.

Social Studies

- Explored the rich history and significance of various historical landmarks and symbols portrayed in the movie.
- Understood the concept of American history and its impact on the storyline of the movie.
- Engaged in discussions about the cultural and historical significance of the national treasures featured in the movie.

Engage students in creative art projects inspired by historical artifacts and symbols from the movie. Encourage them to write their own historical adventure stories, incorporating critical thinking and problem-solving elements. Additionally, consider organizing a treasure hunt activity where students solve math puzzles and decipher codes related to historical events.

Book Recommendations

- The 39 Clues: The Maze of Bones by Rick Riordan: A thrilling adventure involving historical clues and treasure hunting.
- Chasing Vermeer by Blue Balliett: A mystery story centered around art, codes, and solving puzzles.
- Voyage with the Vikings \(Imagination Station, #1\) by Marianne Hering: A historical adventure featuring time travel and exploration of different cultures.

If you click on these links and make a purchase, we may receive a small commission.