

English Language Arts

- The child learned vocabulary related to the activity such as "eyelashes, eyelash extension, eyelash glue."
- They practiced descriptive writing by describing the different types of lashes used and their characteristics.
- The child may have engaged in reading and following instructions on how to apply lashes, which helps with reading comprehension and following procedures.

Math

- The child may have practiced measurement skills while cutting and adjusting the length of the lashes to fit their eyes.
- They could have used addition and subtraction to calculate the total cost of lashes and compare prices of different types.
- Counting the number of lashes or the repetitions of the application process can reinforce numeracy skills.

Science

- The child learned about the anatomy of the eye and the purpose of eyelashes for protecting the eye from debris and moisture.
- They may have explored the properties of the materials used in making the lashes, such as the adhesive and the synthetic fibers.
- The activity involved an introduction to the concept of beauty products and cosmetics, which can lead to discussions about personal care and hygiene.

For continued development, encourage the child to research the history and cultural significance of lash enhancements in different societies. This could include exploring the use of lashes in different fashion trends and beauty standards around the world. They could also experiment with creating their own unique lash designs using different materials and techniques.

Book Recommendations

- "The Eyelash Extension Professional Training Manual" by Christa McDearmon: A comprehensive guide to eyelash extensions, covering techniques, application, and maintenance.
- "The Science of Eyelashes" by Craig Hawes: Explores the biology and evolution of eyelashes, their functions, and the cultural significance of long lashes.
- "Beauty Basics: The Official Lash Extension Guide" by Jenny Faubert: A beginner-friendly book that covers the basics of lash extensions, from choosing the right type to maintaining them.

If you click on these links and make a purchase, we may receive a small commission.