

To My Wonderful Grandma

In the garden where sweet flowers bloom,
You share your love, dispelling all gloom.
With every hug, I feel so blessed,
Your gentle heart, it gives me rest.

Your stories sparkle like stars at night,
Each word you share brings pure delight.
From baking cookies to playing games,
Your laughter always lifts my name.

You teach me kindness, you teach me grace,
In your warm smile, I find my place.
Through every challenge, big or small,
You're my hero, I cherish it all.

So here's to you, my grandma dear,
In my heart, you are forever near.
With every moment that we share,
I thank the stars for you to care.

I'll hold your wisdom close to me,
Forever grateful, I hope you'll see.
So let this poem be a special way,
To say I love you, each and every day.
