

The Taj Mahal is a beautiful palace in India built by a king for his beloved wife. It is made of shiny white marble and has big, tall domes that look like giant bubbles. Inside, there are colorful, sparkly jewels that make it look magical, just like a fairy tale castle. People from all over the world visit the Taj Mahal to see its beauty and learn about the love story behind it.