

Here are 7 fun ways to say that squirrels keep nuts and cones inside hollows for the winter:

1. Squirrels hide their nuts and cones in tree holes to eat during the cold winter.
2. For winter food, squirrels store nuts and cones inside cozy tree hollows.
3. To keep food safe, squirrels put nuts and cones inside holes in trees for the winter.
4. Squirrels tuck nuts and cones inside tree hollows to have food when it's snowy and cold.
5. Before winter comes, squirrels hide nuts and cones in holes in the trees.
6. To stay full in winter, squirrels keep nuts and cones inside tree hollows.
7. Squirrels use tree holes to keep their nuts and cones safe for winter time.