

Riddles

1. I rise in the morning to wake up the day, I warm your face and chase the clouds away. What am I?
2. Yellow and bright, I light up the sky — I give plants a hug so they can grow high. What am I?
3. I disappear at night and come back each day; I make everything bright so you can go out and play. What am I?

Answers and simple explanations for a 6-year-old

1. Answer: The Sun. Explanation: (1) It comes up in the morning, (2) it warms your face, (3) it can help clear the sky.
2. Answer: The Sun. Explanation: (1) It looks yellow and bright, (2) plants need its light to grow — like a hug for plants.
3. Answer: The Sun. Explanation: (1) It is not seen at night, (2) it returns during the day to give light so we can play outside.