

Popeye is a fun character from cartoons and comic strips! His name has a cool story. It comes from a word called 'Popeye,' which means someone who has big, bulging eyes. In the old stories, he had big eyes that looked like they were popping out when he got surprised or excited.

Also, Popeye is known for eating spinach, which makes him strong! So he became a superhero of sorts who helps others and fights for what is right. His name helps show that he is special and unique!

So, whenever you hear the name Popeye, you can think about his big eyes and how strong he gets when he eats spinach!