

Running a cruise ship is like being the captain of a big, floating playground! There are many people who work together to make sure everything goes smoothly. Here's a step-by-step look at who runs a cruise ship:

1. The Captain: The captain is like the boss of the ship. They steer the ship and make sure everyone is safe.
2. The Crew: There are lots of helpers called the crew. They do different jobs like cleaning, cooking, and helping guests.
3. The Sailors: Some crew members are sailors who know how to operate the ship and keep it moving in the right direction.
4. Entertainers: On a cruise ship, there are people who put on shows and make sure everyone has fun with games and parties.
5. Kitchen Staff: There are cooks and servers who prepare delicious food for everyone onboard to enjoy.
6. Guest Services: If you need help or have questions, there are people who work at guest services to assist you.

So, many different people work on a cruise ship, and they all help make your trip exciting and enjoyable!
