

Sex is a way that people come together to make babies. It's also about how grown-ups show love and care for each other. When two people decide to have a baby, they share something special that helps create a new life. This involves parts of their bodies that are different for boys and girls.

It's important to know that this is a natural part of life that happens when people are much older, and it's also a way to express feelings between adults. If you have more questions or are curious, talking to a trusted adult can help you understand better.