

Interesting Facts About Savannah, GA

Savannah, Georgia is a city full of history, culture, and fun facts! Here are some neat things you should know:

1. A City with a Plan

Did you know that Savannah was designed by a man named James Oglethorpe in 1733? He planned the city in a grid pattern, with squares for parks and gathering places. Today, there are 22 historic squares, each with its unique charm!

2. Spanish Moss Everywhere

If you visit Savannah, you'll notice trees draped in a grayish-green plant called Spanish moss. It's not actually a moss but a type of bromeliad that hangs from trees, giving the city a mystical feel. Fun fact: Spanish moss is said to be a favorite spot for owls and other birds!

3. The First Planned City

Savannah is known as the first planned city in America. James Oglethorpe designed it with wide streets and large squares. This made it easier for people to navigate and enjoy the beautiful scenery.

4. The Ghosts of Savannah

Savannah is considered one of the most haunted cities in America! Many ghost tours are available for those who want to explore ghost stories and haunted locations, including historic homes and cemeteries.

5. A Rich Cultural Heritage

Savannah is known for its strong African-American history and culture. The city celebrates this heritage with events like the annual Savannah Black Heritage Festival, which showcases music, art, and delicious food.

6. Home of the Famous Film Locations

Have you ever seen the movie Forrest Gump? Many scenes were filmed in Savannah, especially in the beautiful Forsyth Park and along the iconic River Street. It's fun to visit these movie locations!

7. The Savannah River

The Savannah River is an important part of the city. It's not just pretty to look at; it's also a working river where boats carry goods. You can enjoy a scenic walk along River Street, filled with shops and restaurants!

8. Tasty Treats

Don't forget to try some of Savannah's famous food! Be sure to taste the shrimp and grits, a traditional dish, and the delicious pralines, sweet candy made from sugar, cream, and nuts.

With these interesting facts, you can see why Savannah, Georgia is a special place to explore. Whether you're interested in history, nature, or delicious food, Savannah has something for everyone!