

Objective

By the end of this lesson, you will have a better understanding of Vikings and their impact on history.

Materials and Prep

- Pen and paper
- Access to the internet or books about Vikings

Activities

- Research and create a Viking timeline: Use the information you find to create a timeline showcasing key events in Viking history. Include important dates, significant Viking figures, and notable achievements. Be creative in your presentation!
- Design a Viking longship: Vikings were known for their impressive longships. Draw and label a detailed diagram of a Viking longship, highlighting its unique features and explaining their significance.
- Write a Viking saga: Imagine you are a Viking storyteller. Create an exciting and adventurous saga that captures the spirit of Viking exploration and conquest. Include mythical creatures, brave heroes, and epic battles.
- Build a Viking village model: Using materials you have at home, construct a miniature model of a Viking village. Pay attention to details such as longhouses, fences, and other structures commonly found in Viking settlements.
