

Objective

By the end of the lesson, the student will be able to engage in reciprocal play activities with a partner.

Materials and Prep

- Soft toys or dolls
- Play mat or blanket
- Enthusiasm and energy!

No prior knowledge needed, just come ready to have fun!

Activities

- 1. Mirror Play: Sit facing your child with a soft toy or doll. Encourage your child to copy your actions with their own toy.
- 2. Turn-Taking: Take turns placing toys on the play mat. Use simple phrases like "Your turn" and "My turn" to introduce the concept of sharing.
- 3. Peek-a-Boo: Hide a toy under a blanket and encourage your child to find it. Switch roles and have your child hide the toy for you to find.

Talking Points

- "Let's play together! Can you do what I do with your toy?"
- "Now it's your turn to place the toy on the mat. Great job sharing!"
- "Where did the toy go? Peek-a-boo! It's hiding under the blanket."
