

Objective

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to read unseen texts with fluency, expression, and correct mistakes by yourself.

Materials and Prep

- Storybook or printed text
- Timer
- Pen or pencil
- Quiet learning environment

Before starting the lesson, make sure you are well-rested and have a positive attitude towards learning.

Activities

- Read Aloud Challenge: Set a timer for 5 minutes and challenge yourself to read a storybook or text out loud with expression and fluency.
- Act Out the Story: Choose a favorite part of the text and act it out to practice adding excitement and emotion to your reading.
- Find the Mistakes: Read a short passage and intentionally make a few mistakes. Challenge yourself to find and correct those mistakes.

Talking Points

- "Reading is like telling a story. When we read, we want to sound like we are telling a story to our friends."
- "It's okay to make mistakes while reading. We can always go back and try again to get it right."
- "Reading with expression means changing our voice to show how the characters are feeling. Can you show me how you would read a happy part?"
- "Let's practice reading a sentence together. Remember to read smoothly and not too fast or too slow."
- "When we find a word we don't know, we can sound it out or ask for help. Learning new words makes us better readers!"
- "Reading is fun! Let's enjoy the stories and use our imagination to bring them to life."
