

Objective

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to identify different types of dinosaurs, understand some basic characteristics of dinosaurs, and express excitement about these fascinating creatures through play and creativity.

Materials and Prep

- No specific materials are needed for this lesson, just a fun and engaging environment!
- Prepare a safe space for activities, ensuring there's enough room for movement and play.
- Be ready to use your imagination and encourage the student's creativity!

Activities

- Dinosaur Dance Party:

Play some fun music and have a dance party! Pretend to be different dinosaurs while dancing. Can you stomp like a T-Rex? Wiggle like a Triceratops?

- Dinosaur Roar:

Practice making dinosaur sounds! Take turns roaring like different dinosaurs. Can you make a loud roar or a quiet one?

- Dinosaur Parade:

Go on a dinosaur parade around the house or yard. Pretend to be dinosaurs walking together. What kind of dinosaurs are you?

- Dinosaur Story Time:

Make up a story about dinosaurs. Use your imagination to create a fun adventure. What do the dinosaurs do in your story?

Talking Points

- "Look at this big dinosaur! This is a T-Rex. Can you roar like a T-Rex?"
- "Dinosaurs lived a long, long time ago. Can you pretend to be a dinosaur?"
- "Some dinosaurs were very big, and some were small. What kind of dinosaur do you want to be?"
- "Dinosaurs had different colors! What color do you think your dinosaur is?"
