- fuerte (FWER-teh) - strong

(Remember: adjectives often change their ending to 'o' or 'a' to match the noun, but for our monsters, let's focus on fun!)

¡A Crear! Let's Create Your Monster!

1. Dibuja tu Monstruo (Draw your Monster): Grab your paper and drawing supplies. Think about your monster: Is it big or small? How many eyes does it have? What color is it? Let your imagination run wild! Make it unique and special!
2. Ponle Nombres (Label it): Once your masterpiece is ready, use your new Spanish words to label its body parts. For example, draw an arrow to an eye and write "ojo" or "los ojos". You can also label its color!
3. Añade Detalles (Add Details): Use your craft supplies if you have them! Maybe your monster needs googly eyes or yarn for hair!

¡Presenta a tu Monstruo! (Introduce Your Monster!)

Now, it's time to introduce your monster. Try to use these sentences. I'll help you with the pronunciation if you like!

- "Este es mi monstruo. Se llama [Monster's Name]." (This is my monster. Its name is [Monster's Name].)
- "Mi monstruo es [adjective, e.g., grande y verde]." (My monster is [big and green].)
- "Tiene [number] [body part, e.g., tres ojos azules]." (It has [three blue eyes].) For example: "Tiene dos ojos." (It has two eyes.) "Tiene una boca grande." (It has a big mouth.)
- "También tiene [body part, e.g., brazos fuertes]." (It also has [strong arms].)

Tell me all about your fantastic creation in Spanish! Don't worry about making mistakes; the goal is to have fun and try out your new words.

Pequeño Desafío (Little Challenge - Optional)

If you want an extra challenge, try to give your monster a favorite activity! For example: "A mi monstruo le gusta bailar." (My monster likes to dance.) or "A mi monstruo le gusta comer pizza." (My monster likes to eat pizza.)

¡Excelente Trabajo, Artista! (Excellent Work, Artist!)

You did an amazing job creating your monster and using Spanish! Learning a new language is like building with blocks - every new word is a new block for your creations. ¡Sigue practicando y divirtiéndote! (Keep practicing and having fun!) ¡Hasta la próxima! (Until next time!)
