

Objective

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to write a creative story using descriptive language and character development, inspired by Hello Kitty.

Materials and Prep

- Paper
- Pencils or pens
- Imagination and creativity

No prior knowledge is required for this lesson. Just bring your love for Hello Kitty and your enthusiasm for writing!

Activities

- Brainstorming: Brainstorm different settings, characters, and plot ideas for a Hello Kitty themed story.
- Character Development: Create a main character inspired by Hello Kitty, and develop their personality, appearance, and background.
- Descriptive Writing: Write a descriptive paragraph about the setting where the story takes place, using vivid language to bring it to life.
- Story Writing: Use the brainstormed ideas and character development to write a creative story featuring Hello Kitty and the developed character.

Seventh Grade Talking Points

- "In Social Studies, we learn about different cultures and traditions. Hello Kitty is a beloved character from Japan, and we can explore her world through creative writing."
- "Writing a descriptive paragraph helps us practice using vivid language to create a clear picture in the reader's mind, a skill that is important in understanding historical documents and literature."
- "Creating a character with a unique personality and background can help us understand the diversity of people and cultures around the world, which is an important aspect of Social Studies."
