

Objective

By the end of this lesson, the student will have gained knowledge about Mewlana Jalaluddin Rumi's biography and its significance in the context of Social Studies: Geography.

Materials and Prep

- Internet access
- Writing materials

Activities

- Research: Instruct the student to conduct online research on Mewlana Jalaluddin Rumi's biography. They should focus on gathering information about his life, contributions, and relevance to the field of geography.
- Writing: Ask the student to write a short summary of Rumi's biography, highlighting key events and his impact on geography.

Australia: Year 7 Talking Points

- Rumi's Early Life: "Mewlana Jalaluddin Rumi was born in 1207 in Balkh, which is now part of present-day Afghanistan. During his early years, he traveled extensively with his family, eventually settling in Konya, in modern-day Turkey."
- Rumi's Poetry: "Rumi is widely known for his mystical poetry, which explores themes of love, spirituality, and human connection. His works have been translated into numerous languages and continue to inspire people around the world."
- Influence on Geography: "Rumi's writings often contain references to nature and the natural world. His appreciation for the environment and his emphasis on the interconnectedness of all things aligns with the principles of geography, which studies the Earth's physical features, climate, and human interactions with the environment."
- Rumi's Global Impact: "Despite living centuries ago, Rumi's teachings and poetry have transcended time and cultural boundaries. His messages of unity and love have resonated with people from various backgrounds, making him a significant figure in the global cultural landscape."