

Objective

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to write a creative story inspired by WWE.

Materials and Prep

- Paper
- Pencils or pens
- WWE books or magazines (optional)

Activities

1. Brainstorm WWE Characters: Spend some time thinking about your favorite WWE wrestlers and their unique personalities. Write down their names and a few words that describe them.
2. Create Your Own WWE Character: Imagine a new wrestler with special powers and a catchy name. Draw a picture of your character and write a description of their appearance, personality, and signature moves.
3. Design a Wrestling Match: Think about an exciting WWE match you would like to see. Write a play-by-play description of the match, including the wrestlers involved, the moves they perform, and the outcome of the match.
4. Write a WWE Story: Use your imagination to create a story inspired by WWE. It could be about a wrestler's journey to become a champion, a rivalry between two wrestlers, or a backstage drama. Write a beginning, middle, and end for your story.

Talking Points

- WWE stands for World Wrestling Entertainment. It is a form of entertainment that combines wrestling, storytelling, and athleticism.
- Wrestlers in WWE have unique characters with special names, costumes, and personalities. These characters help create exciting storylines and engage the audience.
- When creating your own WWE character, think about their appearance, personality traits, and special moves. What makes them stand out from other wrestlers?
- A wrestling match is like a performance where wrestlers showcase their skills and tell a story through their actions. Think about the moves, reactions, and emotions that can make a match exciting.

- When writing a WWE story, consider the elements of a good story such as a clear beginning, an interesting conflict or challenge, and a satisfying resolution. You can also include elements like friendship, teamwork, and overcoming obstacles.
