

Objective

By the end of this lesson, the student will have a better understanding of the Great Depression in Australia and its impact on the country.

Materials and Prep

- Computer or tablet with internet access
- Pen and paper

No prior knowledge is required for this lesson.

Activities

- Activity 1: Research the Great Depression in Australia

In this activity, the student will conduct online research to gather information about the Great Depression in Australia. They can explore various sources, such as articles, videos, and images, to gain a comprehensive understanding of the topic.

- Activity 2: Create a Timeline

The student will create a timeline highlighting key events and milestones during the Great Depression in Australia. They can use their research findings to identify important dates and significant developments. The timeline can be drawn or created digitally, depending on the student's preference.

- Activity 3: Interview a Family Member or Friend

Encourage the student to interview a family member or friend who may have lived during the Great Depression in Australia. They can ask questions about their experiences, challenges, and how it impacted their lives. The student can take notes during the interview and share their findings later.
