

Objective

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to create your own Lego artwork using only Legos.

Materials and Prep

- Lego bricks of various sizes and colors
- A flat surface to work on, such as a table or a large Lego baseplate
- A camera or smartphone to take pictures of your artwork
- Optional: Lego instruction manuals for inspiration

Activities

- Activity 1: Free Build - Use your imagination to create a unique Lego sculpture. Start by experimenting with different brick combinations and see what you can come up with. Don't be afraid to think outside the box!
- Activity 2: Lego Mosaic - Choose a simple image or pattern you like, and try to recreate it using Lego bricks. Start by outlining the design and then fill in the colors. Take a step back and admire your Lego mosaic once it's complete.
- Activity 3: Lego Sculpture - Challenge yourself to build a three-dimensional sculpture, like a robot, animal, or your favorite character. Think about the shapes and forms you can create using Lego bricks. Get creative and have fun!

Talking Points

- Legos are not just for building structures, they can also be used as a medium for creating art.
- Art can be made from anything, including Legos. You can use your creativity and imagination to make unique and interesting pieces.
- When building with Legos, think about the different shapes and colors you can use to make your artwork stand out.
- Experiment with different combinations of Lego bricks to see what works best for your design.
- Take your time and enjoy the process of building with Legos. There is no right or wrong way to create art.
- Don't be afraid to make mistakes or try new things. Sometimes the best ideas come from unexpected places.
- Remember to take pictures of your Lego artwork to document your progress and share it with others.
- Feel free to get inspiration from Lego instruction manuals, but don't be limited by them. Use them as a starting point and let your creativity take over.
- Have fun and let your imagination run wild! Legos are a great way to express yourself and create something truly unique.
