

Objective

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to write a well-structured and engaging essay.

Materials and Prep

- Pen or pencil
- Blank paper or notebook

No prior knowledge or preparation is required for this lesson.

Activities

- Activity 1: Brainstorming
Start by brainstorming essay topics that interest you. Write down any ideas that come to mind, without worrying about structure or grammar. This will help you find a subject you are passionate about.
- Activity 2: Creating an Outline
Once you have chosen a topic, create an outline for your essay. Divide it into introduction, body paragraphs, and conclusion. Jot down main points or arguments you want to include in each section.
- Activity 3: Writing the Introduction
Begin writing your essay by crafting a strong introduction. Start with an attention-grabbing hook and provide some background information on your topic. End the introduction with a clear thesis statement.
- Activity 4: Developing Body Paragraphs
In this activity, focus on expanding each main point or argument from your outline into a separate body paragraph. Make sure to provide supporting evidence and examples to strengthen your arguments.
- Activity 5: Writing the Conclusion
Conclude your essay by summarizing your main points and restating your thesis statement. Leave the reader with a thought-provoking ending or a call to action related to your topic.

Talking Points

- Brainstorming: "Take a moment to think about topics that genuinely interest you. What are some subjects you could write passionately about?"
- Creating an Outline: "An outline helps organize your thoughts and ensures a logical flow in your essay. Divide it into introduction, body paragraphs, and conclusion. What main points or arguments would you like to include in each section?"
- Writing the Introduction: "The introduction sets the tone for your essay. Start with a hook that grabs the reader's attention, provide some background information, and end with a clear thesis statement. How can you make your introduction engaging?"
- Developing Body Paragraphs: "Each body paragraph should focus on a single main point or argument from your outline. Support your ideas with evidence and examples. How can you make your arguments compelling?"
- Writing the Conclusion: "The conclusion brings your essay to a close. Summarize your main points, restate your thesis statement, and leave the reader with a memorable ending. What message or call to action would you like to convey?"
