

Objective

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to analyze and discuss the themes and characters in the book Blueback by Tim Winton.

Materials and Prep

- Copy of the book Blueback by Tim Winton
- Pen/pencil and notebook

Activities

1. Reading Comprehension: Read the first chapter of Blueback independently. Take notes on the main characters and any important events that occur.
2. Character Analysis: Choose one character from the book and create a character profile. Include details about their appearance, personality traits, and their role in the story.
3. Theme Exploration: Identify the main themes in the book. Write a short paragraph explaining how these themes are developed throughout the story.
4. Discussion: Find a family member or friend who has also read Blueback. Have a conversation about your favorite parts of the book, the characters you liked/disliked, and any important lessons you learned.

Talking Points

- Characters: "Let's talk about the main characters in Blueback. Who are they? What are their personalities like? How do they contribute to the story?"
- Themes: "What are some of the main themes in Blueback? How does the author explore these themes? Can you provide examples from the book?"
- Character Analysis: "Choose one character from the book and describe them in detail. What are their strengths and weaknesses? How do they change throughout the story?"
- Favorite Parts: "What were your favorite parts of the book? Why did they stand out to you? Did any scenes or moments make you feel a certain way?"
- Lessons Learned: "What important lessons did you learn from Blueback? How did the book inspire you or make you think differently about the ocean and its creatures?"