About the Trojan War

The Trojan War is one of the most famous events in ancient Greek history, its tales captured in stories like those of Homer's "Iliad." The war lasted for ten years and was fought between the city of Troy and the Greek states. According to legend, it all started when Helen, the beautiful wife of a Greek king, was taken by Paris, the prince of Troy. This led to a great battle as the Greeks sought to retrieve her.

Key Elements of the Trojan War

- Heroes: Notable figures included Achilles, Odysseus, and Hector.
- The Trojan Horse: A clever trick used by the Greeks to enter the city of Troy.
- The Fall of Troy: The eventual burning and destruction of the city after the Greeks cunningly infiltrated it.
