Read the summary of "Anne of West Philly" below. After reading, answer the questions that follow to retell the story in your own words.

Summary:

"Anne of West Philly" is a modern retelling of the classic story of Anne of Green Gables. It follows the adventures of an imaginative girl named Anne who is sent to live with a brother and sister, Marilla and Matthew, in West Philadelphia. Anne is spirited, creative, and often gets herself into trouble with her vivid imagination. Throughout her experiences in her new home, she learns valuable lessons about friendship, family, and finding her place in the world.

Retell the Story:

1. Describe who Anne is and what makes her unique.

2. Explain why Anne was sent to live with Marilla and Matthew.

3. What are some of the adventures or challenges Anne faces while living in West Philly?

4. How do Anne's relationships with Marilla and Matthew evolve throughout the story?

5. Write a brief conclusion about what Anne learns by the end of the story.

Creative Activity:

Imagine you are Anne and write a letter to a friend describing your new life in West Philly and the adventures you've had so far.
