

Instructions

In this activity, you will explore the characters from "Percy Jackson and the Olympians: The Lightning Thief." You will also create your own character inspired by the book series. Follow the prompts below to complete your character study.

Character Map

Fill in the character map below with details about the main characters from "Percy Jackson and the Olympians: The Lightning Thief." Use the following categories: bravery, cleverness, and strength.

Character	Bravery	Cleverness	Strength
Percy Jackson
Annabeth Chase
Grover Underwood
Luke Castellan

Character Traits Reflection

Choose one main character from the story, and write down three character traits that describe them. Next to each trait, write how you relate to it or do not relate to it. For example:

- Trait 1: _____ - I relate to this because _____.
- Trait 2: _____ - I don't relate to this because _____.
- Trait 3: _____ - I relate to this because _____.

Create Your Own Character

Now it's time to create your own character who fits into the world of Percy Jackson, with a father who is God (Jesus). Answer the questions below:

- What kind of character would you be? _____
- What would you be known for? _____
- What powers would you have? _____

Book Blurb

Write a blurb for a book based on your character. Think about what adventures your character would go on and how they would fit into the story of Percy Jackson. Here's a sentence starter to help you:

"In a world where demigods and mythical creatures roam, _____ discovers their powers when _____." Complete the blurb:

Make sure to have fun with your character creation and let your imagination run wild!
