

Instructions

Read the facts about the state of Oklahoma below. Then, answer the questions that follow.

Facts about Oklahoma

- Oklahoma is known as the "Sooner State." The term "Sooner" refers to settlers who entered the territory before it was officially opened for settlement.
- The state capital is Oklahoma City, which is also the largest city in the state.
- Oklahoma has a diverse landscape, including forests, prairies, and mountains.
- It is home to 39 federally recognized Native American tribes, more than any other state.
- The state animal of Oklahoma is the American bison.
- Oklahoma's state flower is the Mistletoe, and its state bird is the Scissor-tailed Flycatcher.
- Oklahoma has a rich history of oil production and is one of the top oil-producing states in the U.S.
- The state is prone to tornadoes and has a region known as "Tornado Alley."
- Oklahoma's state motto is "Labor Omnia Vincit," which means "Labor Conquers All."

Questions

1. What nickname is given to Oklahoma, and what does it refer to?
2. Which city is the capital of Oklahoma?
3. Name one type of landform found in Oklahoma.
4. How many federally recognized Native American tribes are in Oklahoma?
5. What is the state animal of Oklahoma?
6. Name the state flower and state bird of Oklahoma.
7. What is one significant natural disaster that Oklahoma is known for?
8. What is Oklahoma's state motto, and what does it mean?