

Instructions

Welcome to your personalized worksheet on "Wings of Fire"! In this worksheet, you will explore the themes, characters, and achievements presented in the book. Please complete each section carefully and feel free to express your thoughts and creativity.

Art

1. Creative Illustration: Imagine you are one of the characters in "Wings of Fire." Create an illustration of yourself as this character. Use colors, shapes, and patterns that represent your personality. Write a short description (5-6 sentences) about why you chose this character and what they mean to you.

2. Symbolism: Choose a symbol from "Wings of Fire" that you connect with (e.g., fire, wings, etc.). Draw this symbol and explain its significance in the story. Write 3-4 sentences about how this symbol can represent hope and ambition.

English

1. Vocabulary Building: Find 5 new words from the book "Wings of Fire." Write each word, its definition, and use it in a sentence of your own.

2. Character Analysis: Pick one character from the book and write a paragraph (5-6 sentences) analyzing their motivations and challenges. What did you learn from this character?

3. Inspirational Quotes: Identify two quotes from "Wings of Fire" that inspire you. Write them down and explain why they resonate with you in 4-5 sentences.

History

1. Timeline Creation: Create a timeline of significant events in the life of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam as described in "Wings of Fire". Include at least 5 important events and write a brief description (2-3 sentences) of each event.

2. Biographical Sketch: Write a short biography of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam based on what you learned from "Wings of Fire." Focus on his early life, education, and contributions to India. Aim for 150-200 words.

3. Connection to History: Research one historical event that is mentioned in "Wings of Fire" (e.g., India's space program or missile development) and summarize its significance in your own words (4-5 sentences).

Reflection

In this section, reflect on what you have learned from "Wings of Fire". Write 4-5 sentences about how this book has inspired you. What will you carry forward into your life from the lessons of the book?