

Instructions

Read the short story about Wednesday Addams below. Then, answer the questions at the end!

Once upon a time, in a spooky mansion, lived a girl named Wednesday Addams. She had long, dark hair and wore a black dress with a white collar. Wednesday liked everything strange and unusual.

One day, Wednesday decided to take her pet spider, Homer, for a walk in the garden. The garden was filled with flower skeletons and trees that looked like they were dancing. Wednesday loved the garden because it was different from other gardens.

As she walked, she noticed a group of butterflies dancing in the air. "How different you all are!" she said with a smile. The butterflies were bright and colorful, but they didn't scare Wednesday at all.

Suddenly, Wednesday spotted an old, mysterious door hidden behind some vines. Curious, she opened the door and found a room filled with magical things like glowing stones and ghostly friends.

"Hello, Wednesday!" said a friendly ghost. "Welcome to the Spooky Room!" Wednesday felt excited to meet the ghost and explore the room. They played games and told funny stories, and Wednesday realized that even in a spooky place, she could have fun!

When the sun began to set, Wednesday knew it was time to go home. She waved goodbye to her ghost friends and walked back through the garden. As she walked, she smiled, feeling happy about her adventure.

Wednesday Addams learned that strange and unusual things can be fun! And that made her day special.

Questions

1. What is the name of Wednesday's pet?

2. Describe the garden in one sentence.

3. What did Wednesday find behind the vines?

4. How did Wednesday feel about the ghost friends she met?