

Instructions

Complete the following activities related to basic veterinary knowledge. Use the space provided to write your answers.

1. Vocabulary Matching

Match the veterinary terms with their correct definitions by writing the letter of the definition next to the term.

- A. Vaccination
 - B. Diagnosis
 - C. Anesthesia
 - D. Spaying/Neutering
 - E. Microchipping
-
- 1. A procedure to prevent animal pregnancies.
 - 2. The process of giving a vaccine to boost immunity.
 - 3. A medical process used to numb an animal for surgery.
 - 4. The identification method that involves implanting a chip under the skin.
 - 5. The identification of a disease or condition.

Your Answers:

- A:

- B:

- C:

- D:

- E:

2. Short Answer

What are three common signs that an animal might be sick? Write at least 3 signs.

3. True or False

Read the statements below and fill out whether they are True or False by circling the correct option.

- 1. All dogs and cats should have regular check-ups. (True / False)
- 2. Fish do not require any medical care. (True / False)
- 3. Vaccinations are only for puppies and kittens. (True / False)

4. Research Task

Choose an animal (like a dog, cat, rabbit, etc.) and write a short paragraph about its typical veterinary care needs.

5. Fun Fact

Write down a fun or interesting fact about veterinary medicine or animals that you would like to share!