

Instructions

Imagine you are one of the main characters - Harry, Hermione, or Ron - from the Harry Potter series. Write a diary entry from that character's perspective. In your entry, reflect on a recent adventure or challenge you faced with your friends. Use the character's voice and thoughts to convey their feelings and thoughts about the situation.

Prompts

- What challenges did you face recently?
- How did you feel during this experience?
- What did you learn about yourself or your friends?
- What hopes do you have for the future?

Character Traits to Consider

- Harry Potter: Brave, loyal, determined, sometimes feels the burden of being "the Chosen One."
- Hermione Granger: Intelligent, resourceful, a bit of a perfectionist, values friendship and justice.
- Ron Weasley: Loyal, humorous, occasionally insecure but always stands by his friends.

Diary Entry Format

Begin your diary entry with a date. For example: "October 12, 1991"

Then write in a paragraph or two, letting your character express their emotions and thoughts.

Example Starter

"Dear Diary, Today was a day filled with challenges... I never thought I would..."

Length Requirement

Your diary entry should be at least 150-200 words.

Final Thoughts

Remember to use the character's voice and consider their personality. Be creative and have fun!
