

Instructions

Below are character analysis sections for Harry, Hermione, and Ron. Read each section carefully, then choose one character to write a diary entry from their perspective. Make sure to express their thoughts, feelings, and experiences in the entry. You can be creative and include details from their adventures in the story!

Character Analysis

Harry Potter

Harry is brave, loyal, and determined. He often finds himself in difficult situations but faces them with courage. Despite his fame as "The Boy Who Lived," he remains humble and cares deeply for his friends. His journey is one of self-discovery and the struggle between good and evil.

Hermione Granger

Hermione is intelligent, resourceful, and fiercely loyal. She values knowledge and is dedicated to her studies. Often seen as the voice of reason, she brings logic and critical thinking to the trio. Hermione's compassion and sense of justice lead her to stand up for what is right, even when it is challenging.

Ron Weasley

Ron is funny, loyal, and sometimes insecure. He struggles with feelings of being overshadowed by his siblings and his best friends. However, his loyalty to Harry and Hermione shines through as he supports them on their adventures. He often provides comic relief, but he also has moments of bravery that prove his worth.

Diary Entry Prompt

Choose one of the characters (Harry, Hermione, or Ron) and write a diary entry. Think about a significant moment in the story where this character learned something important, faced a challenge, or had an emotional experience. Use the character's voice and express their thoughts and feelings clearly.
