

Instructions

Complete the following exercises to practice your reading, writing, and grammar skills. For short answers, write your responses in the spaces provided. For longer responses, use the text boxes where indicated.

Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

A recent study has shown that teenagers who read regularly have improved vocabulary, better critical thinking skills, and a greater appreciation for storytelling. Reading can also be a great way to relax and escape into different worlds and ideas. Whether you prefer fiction, non-fiction, or even graphic novels, reading offers endless opportunities to learn and grow. Scientists suggest that dedicating just 20 minutes a day to reading can make a big difference in your overall academic performance and personal development.

1. What does the study say about teenagers who read regularly?

2. According to the passage, what are some benefits of reading?

Creative Writing

Imagine you are a character in your favorite book or movie. Write a short paragraph explaining:

Who you are, where you are, and what you are doing in the story.

Grammar Practice

Identify and correct the grammar mistake in each of the following sentences:

1. The teacher gave the student's they're homework back.

Corrected sentence:

2. By next year, me and my family will have lived in this house for five years.

Corrected sentence:

Writing for Fun

Write a short paragraph (about 5-7 sentences) about a memory or experience that made you feel happy. Use descriptive words to make your writing vivid!

Start writing your paragraph here...

Thinking Deeply

What do you think is the most important theme in the books or stories you've read recently? Explain why you think it's important and how it relates to your own life or the world around you.

Share your thoughts here...