

Instructions

Complete the following activities for each subject.

Art

Draw a scene from the story of David and Goliath. Use colors to express the emotions of the characters.

Describe your drawing:

English

Write a short paragraph summarizing the story of David and Goliath. Include the main characters and the outcome of their confrontation.

Your summary here:

History

Research and write a few sentences about the historical context of the story of David and Goliath. When is it believed to have taken place, and what were the circumstances?

Your historical context here:

Math

If Goliath is 9 feet tall and David is 5 feet tall, what is the difference in their heights? Show your work.

Your calculations here:

Physical Education

Think about a physical exercise that represents David's agility and Goliath's strength. Describe the exercise and why you think it fits.

Your exercise description here:

Science

Discuss how size and strength can affect physical confrontations. What is the role of strategy in overcoming a stronger opponent?

Your discussion here:

Social Studies

How do stories like David and Goliath reflect social dynamics, such as underdogs versus giants in society? Write your thoughts.

Your thoughts here: